Annual report on Sports and Cultural Activities 2014-15

St. Vincent Pallotti college believes in the social, practical and educational benefits of the extracurricular activities of sports and cultural streams. These different activities teach students how to work for a common goal and this in turn develops a sense of responsibility in them. It increases the level of confidence and also teaches them how to co-operate and work with people in different situations. They learn to face the challenges that may emerge in educational and career like sports, requires a student to remain physically fit. The cultural activities are mainly group-oriented which have students from different niches and give them a chance to know more about the people of different passions and cultures. Besides this they can also find groups that share similar social, religious interests. The students will develop interpersonal skills and they will substantially help them achieve higher grades and success.
