

BEST PRACTICE 1: Institutional Scholarship

7.2.1.1 Title of the practice:: Institutional Scholarship

7.2.1.2 Objectives of the Practice

1. To adopt value based motivational system for students.
2. To help students in growing their potential in Academic and Non Academic dimensions.
3. To make Education easier to access.
4. To promote the aspiration of bringing position in University merit list.
5. To support the students who need financial support for studies.
6. To protect the educational interests of Christian Minority students.
7. To promote Christian minority students towards higher studies.
8. To acknowledge the achievements of State, National and International level participants from the College and to motivate them.
9. To build a strong bond between the existing students and the alumni of the institution and to ensure the contributions of alumni for development of the institution.
10. The scholarship gives a boost to the Resume of the students.

7.2.1.3 The context

St. Vincent Pallotti College views its Mission in reaching out to the most under privileged strata of the society. Many of the College students are benefitted through government scholarship given in different categories as –

- Chhattisgarh Post Metric Scholarship for SC, ST and OBC
- Central Sector Scheme of Scholarship for College and University students
- Post Matriculate Scholarship Schemes – Minorities CS
- E- Kalyan Post Matric (outside state) Scholarship- Jharkhand

A scholarship can give a pat on the back to the students. When a student is recognized for his accomplishments it gives him the confidence to pursue other goals. It is very important for students to recognize their own potential early in their academic career so that they foster its growth.

Though our students receive scholarship from government, still we find it insufficient as many of our students are in need of the financial support and seek motivation in order to perform in fullest possibilities. So, our institution has recognised five different categories in which we identify students from each department and give scholarships to them.

7.2.1.4 The Practice

The scholarship by the College is in Five categories. They are as follows:

1. Merit: The Merit-Based Scholarship indicates that the students with outstanding performance in academics has been recognised and felicitated by the institution. This motivates the student to challenge himself to reach higher goals in his own life.
2. Economically Weak Class: Economic condition should not hinder the educational growth of any student. Keeping this in view, our institution identifies economically weak students and encourages in their studies by providing scholarships.

3. Christian Minority: Being a Minority Institution, the College always guards the benefits of Christian Minorities. The Christian students who fulfill the norms are encouraged by providing monetary support.

4. Co-Curricular Activities: Every year we have a big number of students who represent our Institution in State and National platforms. The College recognizes these students and acknowledges their contribution with a scholarship.

5. Scholarship by Alumni: The Alumni of the College are one of the pillars of the institution. Among various contributions, alumni also source for rewarding scholarship for deserving students.

Table showing the eligibility of institutional scholarship:

Name of the Category	Amount	Maximum Number of candidates	Eligibility

The Institute not only pats on the back of meritorious students but also encourages the alround development of their personality.

Number of benefices indicates the success of the practice:

Total Number of Students benefitted = 88

Total sum of money distributed as scholarship = Rs. 315500.00

7.2.1.6 Problems encountered and resources required:

1. The major resource for the above practice is the college management.
2. The College council brought the proposal of up gradation of the institutional scholarship and put it in front of Director that was in turn taken to the college Governing body.

BEST PRACTICE 2: Learning beyond the Classroom

7.2.2.1 Title of the practice: Learning beyond the Classroom

7.2.2.2 Objectives of the Practice

1. To cultivate an atmosphere of sharing of knowledge among the Students.

7.2.2.3 The context

St. Vincent Pallotti College has a number of departments having skilled and experienced faculties. The progressive culture of the college demands a continuous updation of information in various fields. To fulfil these requirements, college operates a unique approach to benefit the students. It is known as 'Learning beyond the classroom'. In this activity, all the departments identify the needs of the students those fall beyond the range of regular syllabus but are essential for their development and vocational justification. This methodology helps in developing some new insights into different commercial, technical, social, moral and cultural issues. The topic ranges from a vast variety of skills as presentation, exposition, technical specialities, mastery over giving interview and many more.

7.2.2.4 The Practice

St. Vincent Pallotti College has a regular practice of conducting such add-on activities since many years. The execution of learning beyond classroom has been one of the best practices of the college and this practice has brought amazing results. The philosophy behind this practice is to see the learning as a continuous dynamic process. The students learn in best way when they are kept engaged in a variety of well structured activities and this in turn generate great results.

The concept of learning beyond classroom was introduced because such practices allow the educators and the students, to let out their creativity through each relevant opportunity. Students must have impeccable skills sets for piquing the different aspects of their personal and professional life. Every department of the college devotes an exclusive span of time in weekly or monthly manner for these sessions.

To strengthen skills, focus lies on improving skills in these three areas:

- Verbal and Non-Verbal Communication.
- Effective use of the presentation skills and Visual-Aids
- Effective Design and Meaningful Organization of Contents
- To practice the technical skills sets.

The success of a teaching session is dependent on multiple factors, including adequate preparation, the balance of learners' needs with educational goals, active participant learning led by a skilled facilitator, and appropriate assessment of the session's educational outcomes.

Following are the main thrust areas of various departments in this context:

Commerce Department:

The suggestion act as catalyst to bring further improvement in the selection and execution of activities. This way the whole activity rolls on a self-enhancing cycle.

The most profound evidence of the above initiative is the achievements of our students. The Conduction of the Events resulted into great Academic Performances by our Students. 4 of our students secured positions in University Merit List that includes Gold Medal in BCA. As all things have their pros and cons therefore activity sessions also encounter some problems. These problems were not major ones and got resolved immediately. Some problems that were encountered are:

- Time constraint: many times, the activities were interesting and students wanted to participate but due to the time limit the presentations were cut down short.
- Sometimes the subject and area chosen were not explained properly and audience couldn't relate to it.
- Students gave theoretical presentations and it was just reading from the slides which made the entire purpose of teacher's presentation in a haywire.
- Various other important and unavoidable activities of the colleges sometimes hampered the scheduling of the sessions.
- Some activities were lengthy and hence the students could not pay attention.

Internal personal skills are key tools for everyone. The knowledge can be gained from the books but we can learn them more from a practical activities, where we get feedback from others on its effect. We live in a world of cut-throat competition. Developing a strong personality puts you at the forefront among others. If you are under-confident or do not know how to present yourself, then it reduces the chances of selection even if you are highly qualified.

The Aim behind organizing such a session is to work on the soft skills, gain better understanding of self-worth and a sense of self-assurance amongst students. Learning new abilities or improving old ones can provide them with a huge boost in confidence as well as knowledge. As you develop your personality, you learn to stay calm and handle situations with a practical mindset.
